ABOUT LOVE

Love ... a word impossible to define. It, undoubtedly, is supreme good. It makes us rise to lofty purposes and holy deeds. It is the universal language that everyone understands. It strikes deeper than a sword.

Love is an effect. And only as we fulfill the right condition we can produce the right effect. To love more is to live more, and to love forever is to live forever. Hence, eternal life is inextricably connected with love. We want to live forever for the same reason that we want to live tomorrow. Why do we want to live tomorrow? It is because there is someone who loves us, and whom we want to see tomorrow, and be with, and love. There is no other reason why we should live on than that we love and be loved. It is only when a man has no one to love him that he commits suicide. So long as he has friends ... the ones who love him and whom he loves, he will live, because to live is to love.

How close, how intimate is the companionship between a lover and his soothing love on a painful journey of life. It is comprehensive relationship, an intercourse beyond the realm of words. Sacred are the moments when the two lovers sincerely whisper in a gentle tone, "God bless us both, and keep our love from falling and our emotions from death".

This book of love contains nothing else but only and only love. Its aim is to enable you to see all the shades of love. It's full of opportunities to learn about love. It is not a collection of quotations of different authors etc. These all quotes are from my pen. This book is not just for enjoyment; it's an education, too. And the one of the lessons is how to love better. I hope you will like the book.

With Best Wishes!
